THOUGHTFUL. The editor of the Nashua Oasis, in view of the approaching thanksgiving, exclaims—"Let thev well to do in the world," while enjoying their plenty, remember the prish- er and other poor people, and by so doing receive the approbation of Heaven and an ap- proving conscience."

A new married couple from down east were taking their nocturnal repose, and talking over "matters and things," when a heavy thunder clap and vivid flashes of lightning filled them with terror and fearful apprehensions. Suddenly a tremendous crash caused the loving couple to start as though they had received an electric shock. Jonathan, throwing his arm around his dear, exclaimed—"Hug up to me, Liz; let's die like men!"

RESTLESS SPIRIT OF YANKEES. The restless, emigrating spirit of New England has never seemed so strikingly illustrated, as in the instance of an old house at Edgarton, Mass., which has been inhabited 200 years, has been the birth- place of over 150 persons, but not a death has occurred within its walls.

The Christian Observer of Friday records the death of the Rev George H. Apton, missionary in India. Mr. A. died at Oodopittiy, Ceylon, on the 8th of June last, aged 46 years. Mr. Ap- thorp was from Quincy, Mass. He graduated at Yale College in 1829, and at Princeton Theologi- cal Seminary in 1829, and left the United States for his mission in 1833.

The Baltimore Sun states that quite a number of persons in that city, having embraced the doctrines of Father Miller, are closing their places of business, and giving away their clothing, &c., fully impressed with the idea that they will have no further use for any thing appertaining to worldly affairs majority in the State at from 3000 to 4000. Both branches in the Legislature will probably have a Whig majority. Of the 21 Congressmen, 10 Democrats have thus far been elected and 8 Whigs. The two vacancies in the present Con- gress have been filled by Whigs. The Legisla- ture using Whig, secures the election of a Whig U. S. Senator, in place of the present demo- cratic incumbent.

MILLERISM. The Meredith Bridge, (N. H.) Gazette gives several instances of respectable men, who have made arrangements for the coming of the Bridegroom, and who expect to hear the midnight cry on the 22d October.

GEORGIA. The vote is small compared with that for Governor last year, and the Democratic gain considerable. The Congressional dele- gation will consist probably of five Whigs and three Democrats.

The Democratic party has gained so far, 2,179 votes, and lost 297, showing a clear gain of 2,881.

NEW JERSEY. The majority for Charles C. Stratton, (Whig,) for Governor, as nearly as it can be ascertained, is 1,397. Whig majority on joint ballot in the Legislature, 29. Demo- cratic majority on joint ballot in 1840, 18.

In the three counties to hear from, Harrison's majority in 1840 was 349.

THE MILLERITE FOLLY. A notice was late- ly inserted in the Democrat at Haverhill, of Gil- man Child of Landaff, aged 38, who left his home on Saturday, the 28th ult., in a paroxysm of mental derangement, from religious fanati- cism, produced by attending the meetings of the Millerites; or, as they style themselves, "Come Outers." He has not since been heard of, al- though search has been made for several days by hundreds of men. He had on an old brown coat, and Scotch grey pantaloons. His hat has been found four miles from home.

WATERMELON MOLASSES. Uriah Johnson, a citizen of Carolina, has extracted from Water- melons a syrup equal to molasses, which would produce sugar of good quality. The syrup is ob- tained by boiling the juice three hours in a com- mon iron pot, eight gallons making one gallon of excellent syrup. He thinks one acre of common sand hill land would produce watermelons enough to make 200 gallons of syrup equal to the best molasses. The refuse of the melon makes capital food for the hogs, and thus nothing is lost.
